

FARR KIRKWOOD Project: International FASD day 9 September 2019

At one of our latest projects situated in Kirkwood (Eastern Cape Province) Beulah Grobler (Project Coordinator) is already hard at work spreading the awareness message. In the photo she can be seen explaining the meaning and symbolism of the FASD knot to community members in commemoration of International FASD Day which took place on the 9th of September

