

BURGERSDORP

The FARR Burgersdorp Project commemorated International FASD Day by inviting 9 influential members of the community to share how they have spread the FASD message and what steps they will take going forward. The team would like to thank them for participating in the event and their continued support and dedication in the fight against FASD.

